

Registration, manuals, etc. have not been specified, leaving these choices to the performer's discretion. However, these general guidelines are suggested:

Relative ranges between parts should be respected.

The start of each variation, denoted by a rehearsal letter, can be seen as an opportunity to change registration in any or all voices.

A single manual should be used whenever melodic material is clearly shared between the upper two staves.